O'NEIL ELECTED TO FILL VACANCY

New Mayor Pledges Faithful Service and Continuation of Progressive Policies

William O'Neil, a member of the city council for the past eight years, was elected Mayor of Richmond, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mayor L. P. Evans, at a meeting of the City Council Wednesday night.

The election of Mr. O'Neil was made by unanimous vote of the other five councilmen, all of whom have seen his hard work for the best interests of the city, and accorded him the honor of the mayoralty with confidence that he will prove faithful to every duty.

Mr. O'Neil was one of the closest friends of the late Mayor Evans, and worked hand in hand with him for the betterment of the city's affairs.

When he took the chair and gavel, he made an appropriate little speech in which he pledged himself to continue the campaign for a better and more progressive Richmond, which had been the ideal of the late Mayor and for which the members of the City Council had loyally worked shoulder to shoulder with him. He asked for the earnest co-operation of the councilmen, and pledged his every effort to be worthy of the honor that they had conferred upon him.

Councilman C. B. Terrill, who had been acting as Mayor by designation of Mayor Evans when he became ill, presided when the council met. He spoke of the sad occasion through which the city had passed and paid tribute to Mayor Evans' great work in its behalf. He told of the necessity of filling the vacancy.

Before nominations were made Councilman Bob Golden did a fine and magnanimous thing. He was one of the defeated candidates in the recent primary in which Mayor Evans was victorious, but he has always been a friend and admirer of Mayor Evans, and it was marked as peculiarly appropriate that he should offer the following resolution, expressing the Council's sentiment over the death of the Mayor:

The Council's Resolution

Whereas, Almighty God, in His divine wisdom has called from His labors as our Chief Magistrate, our beloved Mayor Leslie P. Evans, and

Whereas, We are duly conscious of the sterling worth, the beautiful character, the devoted loyalty, and the high purpose of the man, and realize that in his passing our city, county and state have suffered a great and irreparable loss; therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Board of Council of the City of Richmond, that we deeply mourn our loss. Be it further,

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the proceedings of this Council and that a copy of same be published in the Richmond Daily Register, and a copy be mailed to the family of the deceased.

WILLIAM O'NEIL, Mayor.
Attest: W. E. Blanton,
City Clerk.

The resolutions were adopted unanimously.

Councilman Terrill then called for nominations for Mayor. Councilman Mershon presented the name of Mr. O'Neil. Councilman Golden seconded the nomination, and the vote was unanimous for Mr. O'Neil.

Mayor O'Neil then responded to the applause which greeted his taking the chair with his pledge for conscientious discharge of his duties, and carrying out the progressive pledges of the Evans administration, which had been so largely endorsed by the people at the ballot box last Saturday.

MADE MOONSHINE TO PAY OFF DEBTS

Owensboro, Ky., Aug. 11—When Chief of Police John Williams arrested Moyses Mattingly, young farmer, last night, on charges of bootlegging and operating a moonshine still, he found that Ernest Howell, former superintendent of the Reform School at Greendale, was a guest at Mattingly's home. Howell, who created a state-wide sensation by his charges against the Stanley administration during the Black-Morrow race in 1919, was not arrested. He said he had been visiting at the Mattingly home two weeks.

Mattingly woke up Chief Williams at his home and asked him if he wanted to buy some moonshine. The chief accompanied him to the poolroom, where he sampled the liquor and arrested the young farmer. He then arrested Mattingly's partner in a stable. Then they went to Mattingly's house where a still, a quantity of moonshine and some mash were seized.

"I was making the moonshine in an effort to support my wife and eight children," said the prisoner, who claims that he owes $15,000 at banks and $8,000 on farms. "My credit is exhausted and the drought has ruined my crops," he said.

DISCOVERY THROWS LIGHT ON ROME

(By Associated Press)
London, August 11—A discovery which is claimed, will form one of the fundamental sources for a history of the Roman empire under Augustus, has been made recently by Dr. Oliverio, an Italian savant in Cyrene, the ancient Greek colony in Africa, founded in the seventh century.

A Morning Post correspondent writing from Cyrene, says that excavations at Bengasi—the ancient Berenice which stood in the midst of the Garden of the Hesperides near the mouth of the river Letha—have resulted in the unearthing of a large block of marble eight feet long, one face of which bears a flawless Greek inscription of over 100 lines; the translation of a letter from Augustus on the administration of justice in Cyrenaica, giving wonderful insight into the financial and judicial conditions of the country at that time.

Other interesting finds are a sanctuary dedicated to eastern divinities, probably of the time of Julian the Apostate, with a remarkably well preserved statue of an Egyptian goddess. An extensive Ptolemaic cemetery also has been located. At Apollonia, a Christian basilica of the fifth century is being excavated and at Merdj, the ancient Barce, some Coptic inscriptions have been found which are held to be of great importance when the history of the Arab conquest comes to be written.

AUTO CARAVAN GOING TO CINCY

(By Associated Press)
Lexington, Ky., Aug. 11—One of the largest cross-country automobile caravans ever organized will leave this city this morning of September 8, for Cincinnati. The caravan is expected to consist of about 1,000 automobiles from points as far south as Miami, Florida.

The pilgrimage to Cincinnati has been organized through the efforts of the Lexington Automobile Club and the Dixie Highway Association and the Cincinnati Dixie Highway convention committee.

The caravan will be composed largely of cars carrying delegates to the Dixie Highway Convention which will open in Cincinnati September 8 and last three days.

The procession is expected to be from six to seven miles long by the time it reaches Cincinnati. It will leave Lexington after breakfast September 8, and will arrive in Covington several hours later, being met there by representatives of the association from Cincinnati and Kentucky cities on the south side of the Ohio river, and escorted to parking places in Cincinnati. The last machines are expected to be an hour or more behind the leaders.

Plans are being made for similar demonstrations on the part of the Dixie Highway Convention delegates going to Cincinnati from as far north as Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., with Dayton, O., as the last control before entering Cincinnati, according to word received here.

Harris' Strong Platform

(By Associated Press)
Louisville, Ky., Aug. 11—W. Overton Harris today issued a statement accepting the primary nomination as the democratic candidate for Mayor. ## NEW AUTO AGENCY BUYS FINE HOME

An important real estate and business deal was consummated here Wednesday when Messrs. Henry White and Rice Woods bought the old Madison Garage building on Second street from the Richmond Motor Company. While not made public, it is understood the consideration was around $15,000.

Messrs. White and Woods recently secured the agency for the Dodge Bros. motor car for Madison, Garrard and a number of other counties in this section of the state. The main agency headquarters will be here in Richmond. With the undoubted popularity of this car and with the progressive and experienced business men behind it, the new agency starts off under the most auspicious circumstances.

The building secured as the home of the firm, was formerly occupied by the Richmond Motor Company, then known as the Madison Garage. It is a large and commodious garage building, splendidly equipped.

FAYETTE CONTEST HERE BEFORE SHACKELFORD

On account of a mistake in printing the ballots in the Representative's race in Fayette county, a contest has been instituted by George Stansell, who was defeated by Arch Hamilton by a large majority, and Lexington attorneys argued several points before Circuit Judge Shackelford here Wednesday night.

After hearing them, Judge Shackelford overruled a motion asking that a restraining order be issued preventing the election commission of Fayette county from issuing certificates of nomination to those candidates who received majorities in the primary election Saturday.

Voters in Columbia avenue precinct voted for county representative, despite the fact that the precinct is not included in district in which the county representative is elected.

On the other hand, voters of the Clifton precinct who have a right to cast ballots in the race for county representative because their precinct is in the county representative district, were unable to vote in this race as he ballots did not carry the names of Hamilton and Stansell.

This is one of the points raised in the suit and is due to an error made in printing the ballots.

Attorneys Maury Kemper, W. Keenon, and Robert L. Northcutt represented the election commission before Judge Shackelford while Attorney Murphy appeared for Mr. Stansell. None of the members of the commission was at the hearing.

Ashland's Housing Plan

(By Associated Press)

HIGH POINT SCHOOL HOUSE BURNS DOWN

Bloodhounds Sent For In Effort To Trail Men Believed Responsible For Fire

The High Point school house burned to the ground Wednesday night.

Superintendent Ben F. Edwards has wired to Lexington for bloodhounds, in an effort to trace parties who, he believes, had a hand in setting the building on fire, or at least causing it to catch fire. He believes that men or boys congregate there to gamble at night, may have been responsible for the blaze. Supt. Edwards says that he never been able to keep a lock on the doors, and that there have been evidences seen in the building that it was being used for that purpose.

Supt. Edwards has notified the teacher and trustees to keep people away from the building until the bloodhounds could get there. The High Point school is located between Silver Creek and Berea. Miss Lila Fortune is the teacher and there are about 35 pupils in the district.

EMINENCE LOSES $60,000 IN FIRE

(By Associated Press)
Eminence, Ky., Aug. 11—Two persons are injured and property loss of $60,000 sustained in a fire which destroyed the automobile agency of E. L. Ricketts and damaged the undertaking establishment of McCarty and Ricketts. The blaze was due to spontaneous combustion. The flames fanned by high winds, handicapped the firemen. Residents of Eminence to more than 1,000 persons turned out to help fight the fire, which burned from midnight until 6 o'clock this morning.

Summer Music Sponsored By National Federation of Music

One of the foremost present-day plans of the National Federation of Music Clubs is that of providing communities with "summer-time" music. In other words, the vision of the Federation and the scope of club work have broadened so that now the club season no longer begins in the fall and ends in the spring. Rather it does not end at all but forges ahead right through the summer months bringing pleasure and entertainment to many more people than are ordinarily reached by the indoor programs of the usual club "season."

In this movement the Federation is instituting four different kinds of music programs the first being the Community Sing which is always successful and practically easy of attainment. Although the "sing" is no longer connected with wartime activities it is predicted that it has come to stay, because it has found favor with the people generally, and it furnishes the medium for a civic chorus which is the ultimate object of effort in this behalf by the Federation.

Pageants, community operas and outdoor festivals are the three more pretentious projects attempted by the club in larger localities. These are educational as well as enjoyable and are found to be surprisingly easy of accomplishment. Indeed it but remains for some one to make a beginning in these various music enterprises, and to the cooperation is wholehearted and efficient. The fact that summer is here but proves that music is needed to refresh a worn and wearied world.

Age in Kentucky

Washington, D. C., August 11—According to the census of 1920 35.2 per cent, or over one third of the people of the state of Kentucky are either infants or children under 15 years of age; 9.8 per cent are young people 15 to 19 years old; 35 per cent, over one-third, are men and women in the prime of life, being from 20 to 44 years old; while 19.9 per cent, being 45 years of age and over, are well along in middle life, if they have not reached old age.

A little over one-half of the population, 53.4 per cent, are old enough to vote, being 21 or over; and in this class the men outnumber the women in the ratio of 104 to 100. The males of military or fighting age, 18 to 44, constitute 33.2 per cent of the male population and 19.4 per cent of the total population.

THE TRIALS OF A HOUSEWIFE

How They Have Been Endured and How Overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Experience of a Providence Woman

Providence, R. I.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a female trouble and backache. It began just after my baby was born, and I did the best I could about getting my work done, but I had awful bearing-down pains so I could not stand on my feet. I read in the papers about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the good it was doing other women, and I have got dandy results from it and will always recommend it. You can use these facts as a testimonial if you wish."—Mrs. HENRIET L. CASSEN, 18 Meni Court, Providence, R. I.

Ohio woman for three years could hardly keep about and do her housework she was so ill. Made well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Fayette, O.—"For about three years I was very nervous and had backache, sideache, dragging-down pains, could not sleep at night, and had no appetite. At times I could hardly do my housework. I got medicine from the doctor but it did not help me. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in a newspaper and took it with good results, and am now able to do my housework. I recommend your medicine to my friends and you may publish my testimonial."—Mrs. CHESTER A. BALL, R. 15, Fayette, Ohio.

An Illinois woman relates her experience: Bloomington, Ill.—"I was never very strong and female trouble kept me so weak I had no interest in my housework. I had such a backache I could not cook a meal or sweep a room without raging with pain. Rubbing my back with alcohol sometimes eased the pain for a few hours, but did not stop it. I heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and six bottles of it have made me as strong and healthy as any woman; and I give my thanks to it for my health."—Mrs. J. A. McQuitty, 610 W. Walnut St., Bloomington, Ill.

The conditions described by Mrs. Cassen, Mrs. Ball, and Mrs. McQuitty will appeal to many women who struggle on with their daily tasks in just such conditions—in fact, it is said that the tragedy in the lives of some women is almost beyond belief. Day in and day out they slave in their homes for their families—and beside the daily routine of housework, often make clothes for themselves and for their children, or work in their gardens, all the while suffering from those awful bearing-down pains, backache, headaches, nervousness, the blues, and troubles which sap the very foundation of life until there comes a time when nature gives out and an operation seems inevitable. If such women would only profit by the experience of these three women, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the natural restorative for such conditions it may save them years of suffering and unhappiness.

There is hardly a neighborhood in any town or hamlet in the United States wherein some woman does not reside who has been restored to health by this famous medicine. Therefore ask your neighbor, and you will find in a great many cases that at some time or other she, too, has been benefited by taking it, and will recommend it to you. For more than forty years this old-fashioned root and herb medicine has been restoring suffering women to health and strength. Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Allments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

Poultry House

AND

7-ROOM RESIDENCE

ON

East Main Street Richmond Ky.

The property of Mr. Frank Renaker on the corner of East Main and Orchard Streets, will be offered for sale Saturday, afternoon, at 2 p. m., rain or shine on the premises, August 27th, 1921.

This lot includes both the building and residence site, fronts on East Main street, 138 feet 4 inches, more or less; on Orchard street 146 feet, more or less. An alley divides this property from that of Mr. Baxter on East Main street.

The Poultry House fronts on East Main street 68 feet 4 inches, and runs back 73 feet. A one-story frame building with concrete floor covers the above mentioned space and now being used by Mr. Renaker to carry on the business of the Renaker Poultry Company. This building is especially adapted for the poultry business, being equipped with all the necessary requirements such as scales, both large and small, etc.; also there is a 175 gallon underground gasoline tank of the modern type installed on Main street.

The House is modern, 7 rooms, consisting of the following: 3 rooms and reception hall downstairs; big concrete basement (one that never leaks). Upstairs: 3 bed rooms, sewing room, bath room and sleeping porch.

This beautiful residence was built in 1916 and 1917; hardwood floors; woodwork and paper in excellent condition. The house has been well taken care of and in just as good condition today as the day it was built. Beautiful yard, garden—Everything that it takes to make a home complete is here. Lot is 50x146 feet.

While the Renaker Poultry Company's books will show the business is paying a good dividend on the investment, and aside from this fact, it is one of the best locations in the city of Richmond to carry on this kind of business. The buildings are so arranged that they can be easily converted into some other line of business, for instance, coal yard, garage, wholesale business, storage house, auction house, in fact any kind of a business would be a paying proposition considering the location and railroad facilities.

A sub-division will be made of this property in the following manner: The house will be offered, then the poultry house and the vacant lot on Orchard street. Then it will be offered as a whole.

FIRST CHRISTIANS WIN THE PENNANT

Cinch Championship In Church
League By Defeating
Methodists

HOW THEY STAND
CLUB	W	L	Pct
First Christians	11	3	.789
Baptists	8	5	.615
Second Christians	7	6	.538
Presbyterians	6	7	.462
Catholics	3	7	.299
Methodists	4	10	.286

The First Christians drew away from the other teams in the Church League by defeating the Methodists on the Normal field Wednesday by a score of 14 to 5. The "Campbellites" can now be hailed as the "Church League Champions" as they cannot lose the pennant if they lose all of the rest of the games they play. Ab Oldham, who has been going good lately, pitched the First Christians to victory with more stuff than he has displayed in any league game to date. He whiffed a total of 18 men and held the Methodist attack under control throughout the game.

Metcalfe, the Methodist twirler, could not hold the battling First Christians back and when the Methodist defense broke behind him in the eighth, the "Campbellites" shoved over six runs before the "cellarites" recovered. This completed the slaughter and the race for the pennant. Metcalfe pitched good ball or the first three innings but he weakened after these early rounds when the scoring began.

The day was filled with stellar catches. A total of three catches were made that were well worth mention. "Daddy" Deatherage pulled a fine one in the eighth when he speared John Parks' long fly with one hand while running at top speed toward the bushes. Spears Turley also made a fine running catch in the same inning. Jim Howe robbed Barnett of a hit in the fifth when he ran in behind second and made a fancy shoe-string catch of his pop fly.

John Lackey and Harold Oldham led the First Christians in hitting with four hits in five times up. Oldham is hitting at a great clip lately and is now the most dangerous man in the league who bats in the famous clean up position.

The First Christians have played like real champs thruout the season and they are truly the best team in the league. The other games will be just as interesting even though the pennant has been won. Everybody come out and find out. The score:

What Is Every Mother's Hope For Her Children?

Sturdy, energetic children radiating health, are a source of pride and joy to their parents. And their development depends largely on their food.

Children, undernourished and unwisely fed are weak and unhealthy, and many times anemic. Grape-Nuts easily grasps them, for their undeveloped constitutions are unable to resist the disease germs.

No food will have greater influence in making your children vigorous and healthy than Grape-Nuts. Served with milk or cream, Grape-Nuts is an ideal body, brain and nerve food. It is made from wheat and barley. Grape-Nuts offers a high food value, and it is as delicious as it is healthful.

Children find delight in the crisp, sweet richness of Grape-Nuts.
